

Department of Chemistry
Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous

Re-accredited by NAAC with GRADE-A
Hosur Road, Bengaluru - 560095
Phone: 080 25530137
Website: www.jyotinivas.org

Action Taken Report

Programme: PG

Year of Revision: 2016

Review of syllabi of the following semesters

2014-2015: I and II semesters

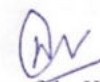

2015-2016: III and IV semesters

Alumni	<ul style="list-style-type: none">To enhance the capability of the student for CSIR-NET, GATE, entrance exams for higher education etc.
Faculty	<ul style="list-style-type: none">For CIA, importance to be given to seminars and presentations more than assignmentsTo strengthen the topics on organic spectroscopy
University Nominee/Industry Experts	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Prof. M. A. Pasha (External Expert) suggested the breakup of marks for practical papers was changed from 60 to 70 for practical examination and 40 to 30 for Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA)Prof. Noor Shahina Begum (University nominee) suggested the implementing of CBCS for M.Sc. Chemistry and the credits to be allotted and grade system to be finalized
Parents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The course structure and evaluation of the progress of students were highly appreciated
Action Taken	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The syllabi were reviewed as per the recent developments in University and UGC-CSIR syllabiCBCS was introduced for M.Sc. Chemistry. Chemistry in Daily Life was offered for non-chemistry students as an open elective paper in III semesterThe changes recommended by the Board of Studies members were implemented

Signature of the Dean

College Seal

Signature of the HOD