

Ranger Unit Orientation Programme 2025-26:

Date: 3rd July 2025

Venue: Room 6

Speaker: Ms. Ashwini MS

Objective: To acquaint first-year students with the Ranger Unit and its motto, an orientation program was organized.

Report: The Ranger Unit Orientation for the academic year 2025-2026 was successfully conducted on Thursday, July 3rd, from 12:20 to 1:10 PM in Lecture Hall 6. The program saw the participation of 22 first-year students, who were introduced to the Ranger Unit's objectives and purpose. The proceedings commenced with a welcome speech by Riya Koirala, a second-year B.Com 'B' student, followed by the Scout and Guide Prayer. Mrs. Ashwini M.S., Assistant Professor, Department of Hindi, and an experienced Ranger Leader from the Open Unit of Bharath Scout and Guide, delivered an insightful introduction to the Ranger Unit. She shared her personal experiences, highlighting the benefits and various examination levels of the Ranger Unit. The students received valuable guidance, motivation, and had their queries addressed. The members of the Ranger Unit were introduced, and interested students were invited to register via a Google form accessed through a QR code.

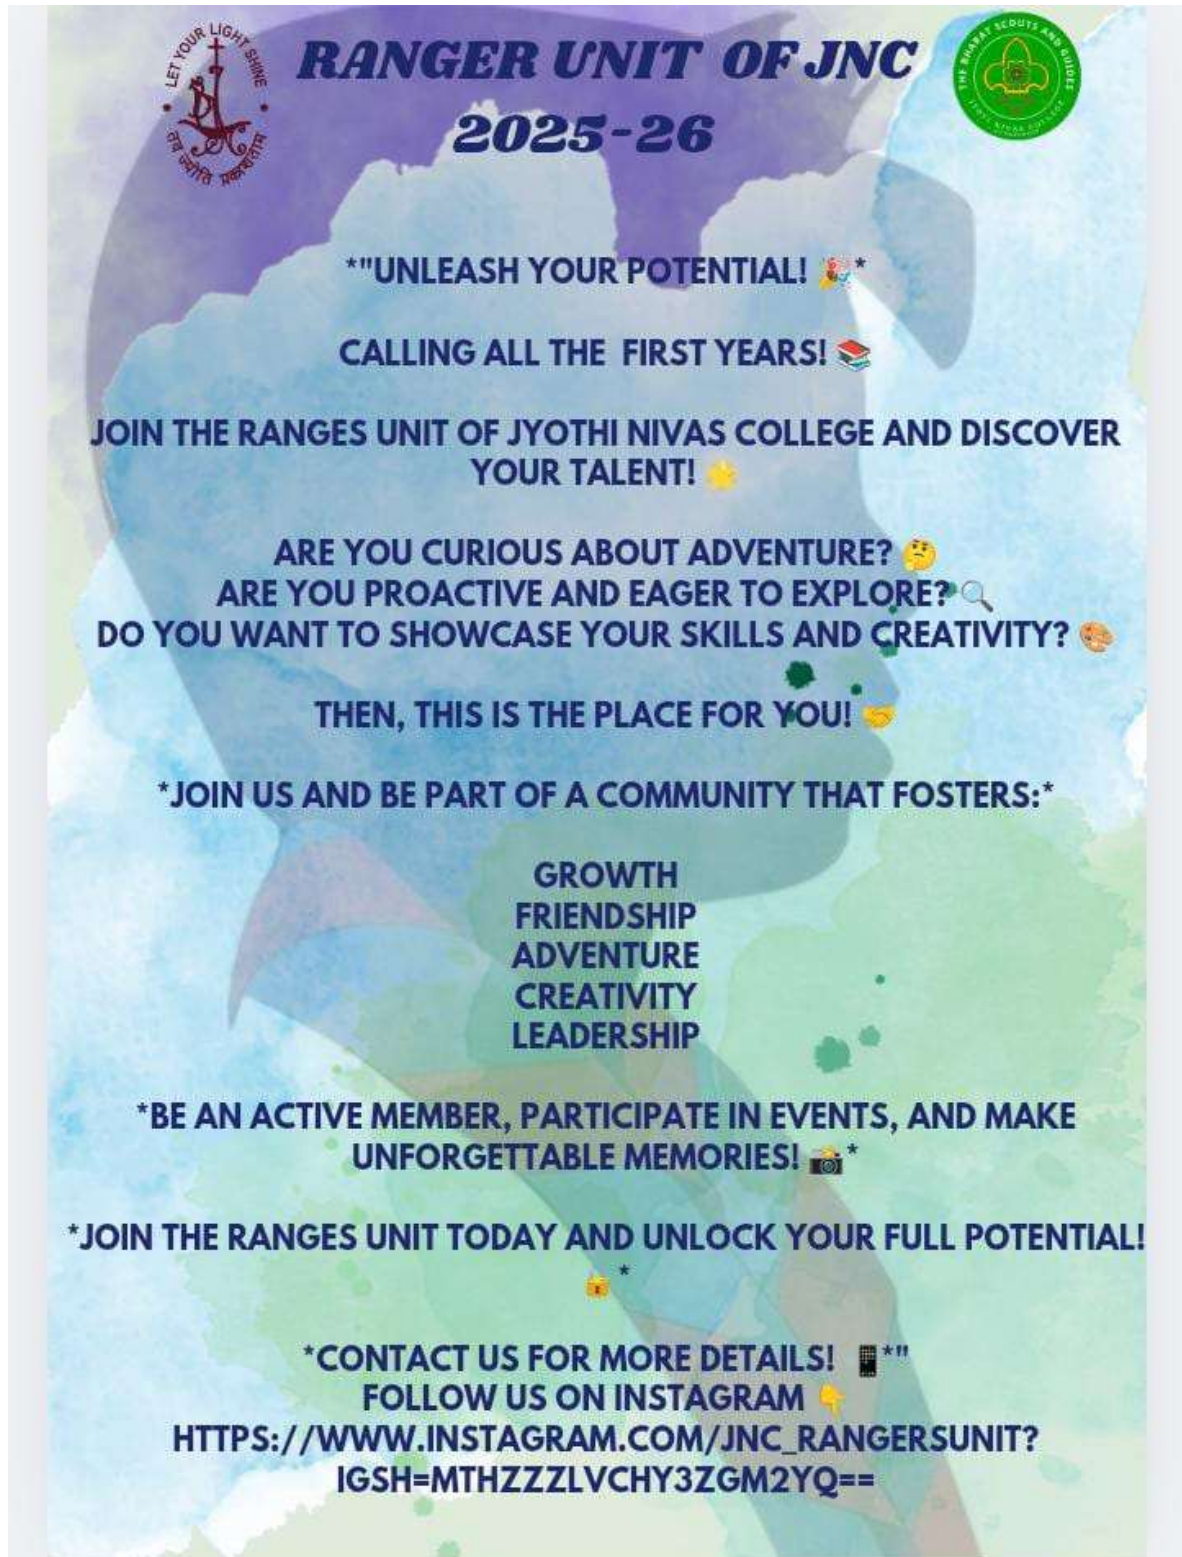

Members Present:

1. Dr. Pratima Bhat (Department of Electronics)
2. Mrs. Ashwini M S (Department of Hindi)
3. Mr. Hemanth D N (Department of Electronics)
4. Dr. Vinay Raghavendra (Department of Biotechnology)

Outcome: The orientation proved beneficial, as students gained an understanding of the importance of Ranger training and the potential advantages it offers, including enhanced prospects for government jobs through various activities and exam levels.
